Security Force Members Pre-emptively Arrest Members of Terrorist Group So-Called Naypyitaw PDF Plotting to Fire Improvised 107mm Rockets Targeting Crowded Places where Unarmed People Gather for Funfairs in Nay Pyi Taw Council Territory

Weapons and explosive related materials seized near Mayantaung (upper) Village of Pyinmana Township

On 24 March, acting on the information tip-offed by conscientious people, security force members arrested two offenders, members of a terrorist group so-called Naypyitaw PDF: Sein Lwin (aka) Maung Sein (aka) Khayay and Win Myo Htet (aka) Win Noe (aka) Belar who were plotting to fire improvised 107mm rocket targeting the crowded places where innocent civilians are gathering for funfairs and the parade ground (Shan Su area) where the Armed Forces Day parade ceremony was held in Nay Pyi Taw Council Territory. The offenders were arrested along with a 107mm rocket in Zeephyupin village of Pyinmana township.

According to the accounts of the arrested offenders and interrogation results –

- Another 107mm rocket was also found and seized in the yard of the house belonging to a fugitive Han Zaw Min and his wife Khin Myo Thet in Zeephyupin village. The fugitive Han Zaw Min is found out to be the NLD party member, an ex-administrator of the village and brother-in-law of the arrested offender Win Myo Htet (aka) Win Noe (aka) Belar.

- Security force members further seized two warheads of 107mm rocket, two circuits, a remote-control device in the bush near Awayyar dam, a MG-1 grenade, four detonators, 16 electric detonators, four black-powder cartridges, and other explosive-related items in the house of fugitive Than Tun (aka) Chindwin.
- Moreover, a pistol handle, a sniper scope, an IED made of PVC pipe, 146 rounds of 12-bolt bullets, one black-powder cartridge, 50 tickles of gunpowder, one green-coloured backpack, four hammocks in camouflage-pattern, one rifle-sling, and other explosive-related items were also found hidden near Mayantaung (upper) village of Pyinmana township and confiscated.

- With the contact of fugitive Han Zaw Min, ex-village administrator and NLD party member, the two arrested offenders became members of the terrorist group so-called Naypyitaw PDF group led by Bo Tayza (aka) Han Min Tun (to be arrested) who is currently operating around Pekon township of Shan state (south).
- On 22 March, three offenders: Bo Tayza (aka) Han Min Tun (to be arrested), Sein Lwin (aka) Maung Sein (aka) Khayay and Win Myo Htet (aka) Win Noe (aka) Belar with two motorcycles carried two 107mm rockets and other explosives left Pekon township and arrived at Mayantaung (upper) village of Pyinmana township. They then practised the steps of how to set and fire improvised 107mm rockets in the wood near the village.

- They then hid the two 107mm rockets and other explosives in four different locations.
- Under the instructions of offender Bo Tayza (aka) Han Min Tun (to be arrested), the arrested offenders plotted to attack on the crowded places where people gather for funfairs. However, the plot was prevented in time by information advantage and the pre-emptive actions of security personnel.

It is reported that measures will be taken to take harsh legal actions against the arrested offenders.
